

The week has been a busy one socially, the first for many months. A number of delightful luncheons have been given, with one or two large and elaborate teas. The dancing party at Christensen's Friday evening was, of course, the most eventful and should be a starter for many such affairs. The two young men who were the hosts are to be congratulated on their management of it.

The coming week will be a busy one. Already there are invitations out for teas, luncheons and dinners, and in addition to this there are to be a few musical events of special prominence. The men are beginning now to talk of the assemblies, and doubtless before the month of December sets in there will be much doing in the line of large entertainments.

A merry party of friends will leave the city next Thursday in anticipation of a still merrier event the week following. The party will include Miss Stella Salisbury, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Gertrude McDonald, Miss Mary Kinney, Captain Moore N. Falls, Lieutenant Jackson, Lieutenant Chambers and Lieutenant Mattison. They go to make a house party at the Donnellan home for a week preceding the Donnellan-Falls wedding, which takes place on the 18th. The girls will all be bridesmaids at the event and the men are also to be attendants. There are many guests planned for the time of their stay.

Dr. and Mrs. Stieh will entertain tomorrow evening a small and informal musical in honor of Mr. Herberman, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Melvin for the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry May will entertain at a dinner Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Edwin Blair of San Francisco.

Mrs. William Reid will give a luncheon Tuesday at her home.

Mrs. Sam Porter entertains informally at cards Tuesday afternoon at the Kenyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Miller will entertain at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Elmer I. Goshen.

One of the large affairs of next week will be the luncheon to be given on Wednesday, the 18th, at the Alta club in honor of Mrs. Samuel Newhouse, at which Mrs. W. G. Filer will be the hostess.

Mrs. Robert Glendinning has issued invitations for a Kensington tea for Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Keogh will entertain at a 4 o'clock tea Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Hester Lavell, who is the guest of Mrs. A. H. Tarbet.

Miss Arvilla Clark will give her first recital since returning from Europe in the tabernacle on the night of Nov. 30, assisted by J. J. McCallan, organist, and the Tabernacle choir.

Mrs. L. A. Osteln of Logan will be in the city the middle of the week to attend the meeting of the state board of directors of the U. F. W. C.

Mrs. Mary M. F. Allen will reach town tomorrow to spend the week with her sister, Mrs. George R. Hancock.

Mrs. E. S. Perry will return tomorrow or next day from Michigan.

Mrs. James A. Miner will return during the week from the coast, where she has been visiting Mrs. McClure.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royle have gone to New York to visit their sons, Sinclair and Edwin M. Royle.

Mrs. Windsor V. Rice will hereafter be at home to her friends on Mondays at her new home, 163 East Brigham street.

The Misses Kirkpatrick and Miss Jackson will leave for San Francisco till late in the week, and may possibly remain over till near the end of the month.

Lieutenant Galt has returned from his old home in Albany where he spent his leave of absence.

Miss Addie Zane will entertain informally at a Kensington Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Winifred Candland has returned to her home in Mt. Pleasant after spending a week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman have moved to 294 East Brigham street, where they will receive their friends after Nov. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henderson, of West Liberty, Ia., are visiting relatives in the city, on their way to the coast.

Mrs. H. V. Croll entertained on Friday at euchre. The rooms were decorated with American flags and covers laid for seven tables. The first prize was won by Mrs. Croll and the second prize by Mrs. Cornforth.

Miss Annie Conigan came down from Park city Wednesday and is visiting with Miss Esie Bailey.

Mrs. Ambrose P. Hibbs of Ogden was a visitor in the city yesterday.

One of the most unique parties given on Halloween of this year was an assemblage of characters, of all ancient, modern and future times.

Revels were participated in at the D. F. R. headquarters, 343 Lake street. The dining room, reception room and dancing hall were gorgeously decorated in autumn leaves, Old Glory and pumpkins, having faces as the decoration.

The main features of the evening were the mock supper, the fortune teller and the dancing. All present voted the evening indeed well spent and a huge success.

The Christensen soiree of last Wednesday evening was the most enjoyable of any yet. The Elite club has made arrangements to attend next Wednesday in a body. A very pleasant evening's enjoyment is anticipated by the club members.

On Thursday evening Mrs. R. E. Collier was agreeably surprised at her home, 733 East Fourth South, by a number of her friends. The rooms were tastefully decorated in asters, dahlias and autumn leaves. Interesting games were indulged in and several vocal and instrumental selections rendered, after which the guests adjourned to the dining room, where a dainty supper was served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. M. Rager, Mrs. S. Clayton, Mrs. W. W. Rager, Mr. and Mrs. Coombs, Miss Kate Camp, Mr. William Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Ledger, Miss Ida Cracroft, Miss Gertrude Clayton and Miss Myrtle Cracroft.

Probably one of the most unique weddings of the season occurred Wednesday, when Miss Tony Kessler became the bride of Seth Brown at the L. O. O. F. hall. The reception was under the auspices of the Maccabees, Utanion friends were most elaborate. At 3:30 o'clock the wedding march was played and a score of guards, dressed in white and armed with spears, marched from an anteroom into the large hall and formed an arch, through which the bride party passed. First came Rev. Frank Barnett of the First Baptist church, followed by little Helen Stearns as ring bearer; then the bridesmaid, Lenore Brown, with the best man, Lew Halset, followed by the bride and groom.

The bride was dressed in a gown of cream henrietta, trimmed in lace and orange blossoms, and wore a veil of cream chiffon. The bridesmaid wore a gown of cream tulle. The bride and groom were escorted to the altar by Rev. Frank Barnett performed an impressive ceremony in the presence of friends, and pronounced them man and wife, while the orchestra played softly. Immediately after they were presented with a number of handsome gifts by their friends. The guests then retired to the dining room, where a banquet was served.

Punch was served during the evening and an interesting programme was given. Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kessler, a wedding reception and supper were given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Brown. Only the relatives and most intimate friends were present. The rooms were decorated in chrysanthemums, and a delicious supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Seth Brown will be at home after Nov. 15 at 76 East Fourth north.
